MERCHANT MARINE CIRCULAR MMC-269

To: Ship-owners/Operators, Company Security Officers, Legal Representatives of Panamanian Flagged Vessels, Panamanian Merchant Marine Consulates and Recognized Organizations (ROs).

Subject: Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006), Certification Process- MLC, 2006

Reference: Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006)

1. That through Executive Decree No. 86 of February 22, 2013, the National Legislation on the Maritime Labour Convention, MLC, 2006 of the International Labour Organization (ILO) was adopted and extensively discussed in tripartite sessions where representatives of seafarers, shipowners and the Panama Maritime Authority participated.
2. The purpose of this circular is to inform users of the Panamanian registry that from March 11, 2013, the International Technical Office of Segumar Panama shall issue at no cost, the Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance, Part I, (DMLC-Part I) in electronic format where the national regulations required to certificate the vessel in accordance to the guidelines of the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006), are regulated.
3. Vessels with a gross tonnage of 500 GT or more, engaged in international voyages, and those with a gross tonnage equal or over 500 GT flying the Panamanian flag and operating from a port, or between ports from another country, must have on board and in a visible place a copy of the Maritime Labour Convention and the Maritime Labour Certificate complemented with the Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance, which consists of two parts, DMLC-Part I and DMLC-Part II.
4. In accordance with the MLC 2006, the term “international voyage” refers to a voyage from a country to a port located outside such country, that is, outside the jurisdictional waters of the Republic of Panama.
5. Vessels with a gross tonnage from 200 GT to 499 GT engaged in international voyages or voyages between ports, may voluntarily request the Maritime Labour Certificate, for which compliance with all national regulations shall be required.
6. The DMLC Part I should only be requested when the vessel is going to start the inspection process in accordance with Regulation 5.1.3 and Standard A5.1.3 of the MLC.
7. If the vessel is going to make a single voyage, the shipowner, operator, RO or legal representative must request authorization for such purposes and attach a copy of the two valid financial securities according to the requirements of the Circulars MMC 336 and MMC 352.
8. In order to obtain the Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance Part I, using the following link: <http://certificates.amp.gob.pa/certificates>
9. Once the DMLC Part I is issued, the shipowner shall complete the Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance Part II (DMLC-Part II), indicating the actions taken in order to ensure permanent compliance with the national requirements during the periods between surveys, as well as the measures proposed for guaranteeing continuous improvement of the aspects subject to survey.

10. That a recognized organization (RO) authorized by the Panama Maritime Authority, shall endorse the Declaration of Maritime Labour Compliance Part II (DMLC-Part II), once the full initial and renewal inspection has ended in accordance to the requirements of the MLC, 2006; and shall proceed to issue the Maritime Labour Certificate valid for five (5) years from the date of completion of the inspection on which this certificate is based, in accordance to the MLC, 2006.

11. The shipowners to whose vessels were conducted a full inspection, as per Regulation 5.1.3 of the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006), at the time of publication of this circular, are entitled to request the DMLC, Part I; proceed with the corresponding processing and use the inspection report to immediately issue the certificate valid for five (5) years from the date of completion of the inspection which shall be issued by a recognized organization authorized by the Panama Maritime Authority.

12. DMLC Part I. If a vessel maintains a current DMLC Part I and change the name of the vessel, change shipowner, change operator, change RO or change GT needs the reissue of the DMLC Part I, the interested party has to send to the account mlc@segumar.com the maritime labor certificate, a copy of the DOC, the DMLC Part II and the financial securities to cancel the existing DMLC Part I indicating the circumstances for which the DMLC Part I needs to be reissued. The Maritime Labour Section of the Segumar Office will evaluate each case and issue the necessary authorization.

If the address of the operator or shipowner changes, they must coordinate with the RO the update of the DMLC Part II and the maritime labour certificate. The DMLC Part I remains the same.

13. The DMLC Part II must include the vessel name, the IMO number and the gross tonnage in accordance to the template given by the administration.

14. There shall only be one DMLC Part I template for all vessel categories under the Panama Ships Registry.

15. The recognized organizations authorized shall only act in accordance to the guidelines provided by the Resolution, which authorizes them in matters related to the Maritime Labour Convention, 2006, (MLC, 2006).

16. The interim maritime labour certificate may be issued for a period not exceeding six months (A5.1.3.6/ A5.1.3.8 of the MLC).

A DMLC (Part I and II) need not be issued for the period of validity of the interim certificate (A5.1.3.8).

17. If at the time of carrying out the initial inspection required in Standard A5.1.3.1 of the MLC, it is not possible for the RO authorized and listed in the MMC 255 to immediately produce a the new MLC certificate on board the ship, may be issued a Short Term/Provisional MLC Certificate and placed on board. The validity of this Short Term/Provisional Certificate should not exceed five (5) months. The five months of validity of the Short Term/Provisional Certificate shall be counted from the date of completion of the initial inspection and included within the five years period of validity of the Maritime Labor Certificate. This certificate must be identified with the nomenclature "Short Term/Provisional Certificate".

18. Intermediate Surveys: A change of RO would not affect the validity of already issued certificates. Each intermediate survey must use as reference the date of the initial survey whether the vessel change or not of RO. In case of change from RO to another then the new certificate will be issued provided the previous certificate remain valid.

For the intermediate inspection, do not need change the DMLC Part I and II. The DMLC (Part I and II) does not carry endorsement in the intermediate inspection.

The maritime labor certificate must be endorsed at the end of the intermediate inspection according to the Standard A5.1.3 of the MLC.

19. When the DMLC Part I is requested by the legal representatives these should be the same that mentioned in the patent or ship registry of the vessel. The RO that requested the DMLC Part I shall be responsible to issue the maritime labor certificate of the vessel.

If a RO requests the DMLC Part I and another RO issues the Maritime Labour Certificate the first RO incurred in bad practice.

20. When authorization is required to revalidate the maritime labor certificate, the request shall be made directly by the RO that issue the maritime labour certificate by e-mail to mlc@segumar.com, indicating the reasons for not carry out the intermediate inspection (Standard A5.1.3.2) on the date indicated and should attach the maritime labor certificate in force.

21. The RO's should request authorization from mlc@segumar.com to carry out the additional inspection regarding to the MLC. To issue the authorization letter the report of the Annual Safety Inspection, Port State Control and/or Recognized Organization should verify by the MLC Section.

22. From January 8, 2019, the ROs listed in the Circular MMC 255 may extend the validity of the Maritime Labor Certificate for a period not exceeding five months after the expiry date of the existing certificate, provided that the renewal inspection has been carried out according to standard of the MLC (A5.1.3.4. The format to be followed by the RO's will be the same as that found in the Appendix A5-II of the Convention and will be added to the maritime labor certificate and be available to the competent authorities.

23. When the renewal inspection cannot be carried out within the corresponding period, the RO, the shipowner or the operator may request an authorization to mlc@segumar.com to issue a conditional certificate and should sent a copy of the maritime labour certificate.

24. When the shipowner or operator intend to carry out the revalidation in advance of the maritime labour inspection without change or transfer Class or RO.

The Class or RO it is obliged to report the certificate to this administration as per our MMC 159.

When the shipowner or operator intend to carry out the revalidation in advance of the maritime labour inspection, and the change or transfer from Class or RO will take place and the procedures established in our MMC 309 regarding Procedures for Transfer of Statutory and Class Certification should be followed.

In both cases it will not be necessary to request authorization for this Administration.

25. In case of change of shipowner or operator address, an additional inspection is not required; the RO shall re-issue administratively the full or interim maritime labor certificate with same expiry date of the previous certificate, considering that this change does not affect the operation of the ship or the Company procedures. Therefore, an authorization shall be requested to mlc@segumar.com, copy of the valid maritime labour certificate and the certificate of registry (patent) updated if applicable.

26. This Merchant Marine Circular revokes Merchant Marine Circulars MMC-248, MMC-254, MMC-256 and MMC-280.

27. The RO's authorized in the Circular MMC 255 may issue the interim (provisional) maritime labour certificate, maritime labor certificate (full) and DMLC Part II, in accordance to Regulation 5.1.2 of the Maritime Labour Convention and the Resolution No. 106-118-DGMM of November, 2012.
